

GABRIELE GALLI
Chief Financial Officer

Degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Pisa, MBA from Kellogg School of Management

Gabriele started his career in BTcino of Venezuela as Financial Controller. In 1996 he moved back to Italy and joined the Boston Consulting Group. During his 8 years in BCG, where he got to be appointed Manager, he dealt with numerous strategic and organizational projects for several companies in different industries. In 2004 he joined Piaggio as Group Controller, to become CFO in 2008 and General Manager Finance in 2012, contributing to the turnaround and the significant transformation of the company. He joined the Amplifon Group in March 2017 as Chief Financial Officer.