

AMPLIFON AMONG THE “WORLD'S MOST SUSTAINABLE COMPANIES” 2024 BY STATISTA AND TIME MAGAZINE

Milan, 25 June 2024 - Amplifon, the world leader in hearing care services and solutions, has been included among the World's Most Sustainable Companies 2024 for the Healthcare & Life Science category. The global list has been compiled by Statista and published by TIME Magazine. The 500 companies in the ranking are distributed across more than 30 countries.

The World's Most Sustainable Companies list rewards the leading companies in corporate social responsibility with an evaluation based on more than 20 indicators relating to sustainability, compliance with international reporting standards, analysis of emissions, and commitments and targets set in this area.

Inclusion in the World's Most Sustainable Companies ranking is one of several recognitions received by Amplifon in 2024, from obtaining a “Score B” in the CDP (Carbon Disclosure Project) Climate Change 2023 questionnaire to inclusion in the list of Europe's Climate Leaders for 2024.
