right in rem that confers voting rights – shall promptly notify the Company of any termination of increased voting rights or their relevant prerequisites; e) after twenty-four months from the date of registration into the List and if the relevant prerequisites still apply, each share registered into the List shall of the aforementioned twenty-four month deadline;

	(Issuer Regulation); 9	g) the List is updated by the 15 th day of the calendar month following: (i) the event that determines the loss of increased voting rights or the non-vesting of such rights within twenty-four months with subsequent cancellation from the List; or (ii) the vesting of increased voting rights at the expiry of the twenty-four month term from registration into the List, with subsequent registration into a dedicated section of the List which states all identification data for shareholders with increased voting rights, the number of shares with increased voting rights, indicating any relevant transfers and restrictions connected to them, as well as any waivers and the date on which increased voting rights were granted; I	h) the List's records can also be made available to shareholders in a commonly used electronic format, upon request; i	i) the Company shall announce, by publishing them on its website, the names article 120, paragraph 2 of TUF, which have requested to be registered on the List, indicating their investments and the date of registration on the List, along with all other information required by current laws and regulations, without prejudice to the other disclosure obligations of the holders of relevant shareholdings.

3. – The transfer of shares against payment or free of charge, including the establishment or disposal of partial rights on shares by virtue of which the voting right is taken from shareholders registered on the List, or direct or indirect sales of controlling shareholdings in companies or entities holding shares with increased votes exceeding the threshold set out by Article 120, paragraph 2 of Legislative Decree 58/1998, shall result in the loss of the increased vote.
4. – The increased voting right:
(i) shall be maintained in case of succession pursuant to death and in case of the merger or demerger of the holder of the shares; (ii) shall extend to newly issued shares in the case of a capital increase pursuant to article 2442 of the Italian Civil Code; (iii) may also apply to shares assigned in exchange for those to which the increased vote is attributed, in the case of merger or demerger, where such condition is provided for in the relevant plan; (iv) shall also be proportionately extended to the shares issued in execution of a capital increase by means of new contributions.
5 The increased voting right shall also be calculated to determine the quorums required for convening and passing resolutions of shareholders' meetings referring to share capital quotas, but shall not affect rights other than voting rights due as a result of possession of certain capital quotas.
Art. 14 = The company shall be run by a Board of Directors, comprising between three and eleven members, as decided by the shareholders in shareholders' meetings.

Art. 15 = Members of the Board of Directors are appointed for a maximum period of three years; they are reappointed and replaced in accordance with the law and are eligible for re-election.
The members of the Board of Directors are elected on the basis of candidate lists submitted by individual shareholders and/or groups of shareholders owning at least 2.5% of the share capital, or any smaller amount established by inviolable provision of law or regulation.
The members of the Board of Directors must possess the professionalism, honourability and independence required under the law; in particular, at least one member of the Board of Directors, or two if the Board has more than seven members, must meet the independence criteria established for Statutory Auditors by the law in effect at that time.
Loss of independent status will require the Director to step down, but without prejudice to the obligation to notify the Board of Directors immediately, that principle does not apply if independent status is still held by the minimum number of Directors required to meet such criteria by the law in effect at that time.
The Board of Directors is appointed based on the lists presented in accordance with the subsequent paragraphs and in compliance with the law in effect at the time relating to gender equality, rounding up the number of the least represented gender in the event application of the gender quotas does not result in a whole number.
The lists which contain a number of candidates equal to or more than three
must be composed of both genders in accordance with the quotas established under the law in effect (rounding up in the event of a fractional number).

One member of the Board of Directors is elected from the minority list obtaining the highest number of votes which is not associated, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have submitted or voted for the winning list.
The lists must specify which candidates qualify as independent as defined by the law and the Articles of Association, which shareholders submitted the lists, and the percentage of shares they cumulatively hold.
For the purposes of selecting the winning candidates, account is not taken of lists that fail to obtain a percentage of votes equal to at least half that required for the submission of lists.
The lists submitted, on which the candidates are numbered sequentially, must be filed at the company's registered office at least twenty-five days before the date set for the shareholders' meeting.
The lists will be published on the Company's website, as well as in accordance with the methods indicated in Consob regulations pursuant to Art. 147-ter, paragraph 1-bis of Legislative Decree. 58/1998 at least twenty-one days prior to the date of the meeting. Each shareholder who submits a list or is party to a list must submit the certificate issued by the authorized intermediary, by the legal deadline set for the Company's publication of said lists.
Each shareholder may submit or take part in the submission of one list only.
Shareholders who are members of a single voting syndicate, as defined by Art.
122 of Legislative Decree 58 of 24 February 1998 (TUF) and its amendments, and likewise the parent company, subsidiaries and sister companies, may submit or take part in the submission of a single list. Participation and votes expressed in violation of the above will not be attributed to any list.

Attached to each list shall be a description of the candidates' professional background, information on their personal traits and professional qualifications, and statements in which the individual candidates agree to run and declare, under their own responsibility, the absence of causes of ineligibility and disqualification, their fulfilment of the prerequisites required by law or the company's Articles of Association and, if applicable, their status as independent pursuant to current regulations.
Any lists that fail to observe the above conditions will be treated as never submitted.
Each candidate may appear on one list only or will be disqualified.
All open directorships are filled from the list obtaining the majority of votes cast, in the order in which candidates are listed, with the exception of one directorship which is filled by the first candidate with independent status on the list receiving the second highest number of votes which is not associated, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have submitted or voted for the winning list.
The above rules for electing the Board of Directors do not apply if at least two lists have not been submitted or voted for, or at shareholders' meetings called to replace Directors during their term of office.
If a single list is submitted, the procedure described above is disregarded and the shareholders resolve, with the majority votes required by law, to fill all open directorships (in the number previously determined by the shareholders) from that list in the order in which the candidates are presented; at least as many shareholders as are required by the law in effect at that time must qualify as independent pursuant to Art. 148, paragraph 3 of Legislative Decree 58 of 24 l .

February 1998 (TUF).
In the event that after the list voting or voting for the only list presented is completed the composition of the Board of Directors fails to comply with the law relating to gender balance, the last candidate elected with the greatest number of votes, based on the order in which he/she appears on the list, will be substituted by the first candidate of the least represented gender not elected on the same list, based on the order in which they appear. This procedure will be adhered to until it is assured that the composition of the Board of Directors complies with the law in force at the time with regard to gender balance.
If no lists are submitted or if the preference list system produces fewer candidates than the minimum number of Directors stated in the Articles of Association, and in the event that through list voting the number of directors of the least represented gender fails to comply with the law in force at the time, the Board of Directors is elected or completed, respectively, by the majority votes established by law, as long as the gender balance called for in the current law is achieved and as long as the presence of the minimum number of directors qualifying as independent under the law in effect at the time is guaranteed.
If one or more Directors leaves office during the year, for any reason, the remaining Directors shall proceed in accordance with Art. 2386 of the Italian Civil Code. If one or more of the outgoing Directors was elected from a list that also included candidates who were not elected, the Board of Directors shall replace the Director(s) by appointing, in sequential order, the person(s) on the list to which the former Director belonged who is/are still eligible and willing to accept the position. Should an Independent Director leave office, the position will be filled, if possible, by the first independent candidate not elected from the list to which the outgoing Director belonged. In any case the Board will appoint the number of independent directors needed to ensure compliance with the law in effect at the time relating to the total number of independent directors and gender quotas.

If the Board of Directors loses a majority of its members due to resignation or any other cause, the entire Board shall leave office and a shareholders' meeting shall be called without delay to fill all positions by vote.
The Board of Directors shall remain in office only for the conduct of acts of ordinary administration until the shareholders' meeting has decided on the new Directors and the majority of the new Directors have accepted their appointment.
Art. 16 = If the shareholders' meeting has not already done so at the time of appointing or reappointing the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors elects a Chairman from among its members every time it is appointed or reappointed and, if it deems so fit, a Vice Chairman authorized to act as the Chairman's Deputy.
The Board of Directors may also appoint a secretary who need not be a shareholder.
Art. 17 = Board meetings are held either at the company's registered office or elsewhere, every time the Chairman, or his or her deputy, deems so fit, or when either at least one Statutory Auditor or at least one of the Directors so requests.
The Board of Directors may also meet by teleconference, as long as all participants can be identified and are permitted to follow and participate in the discussion in real time. In this case, the meeting is considered to have been held in the place where the Chairman is and where the secretary must also be located for the purposes of drawing up and signing the minutes in the minute book.

Board meetings are validly formed if attended by at least half of the Directors, while resolutions are passed by majority vote of the Directors in attendance; in the event of a tied vote, the Chairman shall have the casting vote.
Art. 18 = Board meetings are called by the Chairman, or his Deputy, by letter to be sent to the domicile of each Director and Statutory Auditor at least five days in advance of the meeting. In urgent cases meetings may be called at least one day in advance by telegram, telex, fax or electronic mail with proof of receipt. If the company is listed on the stock market, the Board of Directors or Executive Committee, if appointed, may also be called by the Board of Statutory Auditors, or by two members of the same, after giving prior notice to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
Art. 19 = Unless otherwise decided by the shareholders' meeting at the time of appointing the Board of Directors, the latter is invested, within the limits established by law, with the broadest powers for the company's ordinary and extraordinary administration, and of decision without any restriction, including the power to give guarantees and sureties to third parties, as allowed by paragraph 5, Article 2 of these Articles of Association.
Without prejudice to the provisions of Articles 2420- ter and 2443 of the Italian Civil Code, the Board of Directors shall have exclusive authority for passing resolutions, nonetheless in accordance with Article 2436 of the Italian Civil Code, to open and close secondary offices, to specify which one of the coust, to open and close coolingly emote, to openly which one of the directors shall be the company's representative, to reduce share capital in the event of shareholder withdrawal, to amend the articles of association for regulatory changes, to transfer the registered office within Italy, and to approve mergers in the cases described in Articles 2505 and 2505-bis of the Italian Civil Code, including as referenced with regard to demergers in Art. 2506 ter .

The Board of Directors and Board of Statutory Auditors shall receive a report at least once every three months during directors' meetings that covers the business general performance, its outlook and the transactions of greatest impact on profitability, assets and liabilities and financial position, with particular regard to transactions in which the Directors have a direct or third-party interest and which are influenced by any party that directs and coordinates the company. This report, which also refers to the company's subsidiaries, may also be presented by those Directors with executive powers.
For the sake of timeliness, the report to the Board of Statutory Auditors may also be made directly or during meetings of the Executive Committee.
Art. 20 = The Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Vice Chairman, and any Executive Director(s) shall represent the company individually before third parties and in a court of law and shall be entitled to sign on its behalf.
These persons, again on an individual basis, are delegated with the power to decide regarding legal actions, including appeals and annulments, and to act as plaintiff and defendant and appoint lawyers in civil, criminal and administrative proceedings, with the power to abandon such proceedings, reach settlements, and accept arbitration judgments and friendly agreements.
Art. 21 = The Board of Directors may delegate its functions and powers, within the limits set by Article 2381 of the Italian Civil Code, to a committee consisting of some of its members, to the Chairman or to another of its members, including on a cumulative basis, establishing the related remuneration. The Board of Directors is also entitled to appoint managers and attorneys for specific deeds or categories of deed.

The Board of Directors, as well as the Executive Committee, may set up one or more committees, with purely consultative and/or proposal-making functions, such as for example a Remuneration Committee for Directors invested with particular duties and for determining the policy to apply to the company's top management, which shall consist primarily of non-executive Directors and provide the Board with suitable recommendations, and an Internal Control Committee, on which a suitable number of non-executive Directors sit, who act in a consultative capacity and make recommendations particularly with regard to reports by the Independent Auditors and persons responsible for internal control and the choice of and work performed by the Independent Auditors.
Art. 22 = The Directors are entitled to be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in connection with their office.
The shareholders' meeting may also grant them extraordinary or periodic indemnity and remuneration, including in relation to profits.
Art. 23 = The Board of Directors, subject to the mandatory but non-binding opinion of the Board of Statutory Auditors, appoints the Manager charged with preparing company's financial reports in accordance with Art. 154 bis of Legislative Decree 58 of 24 February 1998 (TUF).
Those eligible for the position of financial reporting officer are executives with at least three years' executive-level experience in administration/accounting and/or finance and/or control at the company and/or its subsidiaries and/or other joint-stock corporations.

Art. 24 = The Board of Statutory Auditors consists of three standing members and two alternate members, who satisfy the requirements (including those regarding experience, integrity and number of positions held and those defined by the law in effect at the time relating to gender balance) stated in laws and regulations.
In the event that after applying the Law the gender quotas fail to reach a whole number; the number of the least represented gender must be rounded up to the higher number.
As regards to the requirement of experience, for the purposes of paragraph 3, Article 1 of Ministerial Decree 162 of 30 March 2000 with reference to paragraph 2 letters b) and c) of said article, "matters strictly associated with the company's activities" mean commercial law, company law, microeconomics, public finance and statistics as well as topics relating to the field of medicine and electronic engineering and disciplines with the same or similar purpose, while "sectors of activity strictly associated with the sectors in which the company operates" mean the sectors of producing, wholesaling and retailing the instruments, equipment and products mentioned in Article 2 above.
The ordinary shareholders' meeting elects the Board of Statutory Auditors and decides its remuneration.
Apart from the duties envisaged by current legal requirements, the Board of Statutory Auditors is entitled to express non-binding opinions on the information received from the Board of Directors concerning transactions carried out by the company or its subsidiaries having a significant impact on profitability, assets and liabilities and financial position, and on related-party transactions.

The Statutory Auditors are domiciled at the company's registered office for their entire term in office.
The minority shareholders are entitled to elect one standing member of the Board of Statutory Auditors and one alternate member.
The Board of Statutory Auditors is appointed on the basis of lists submitted by individual shareholders or groups of shareholders who together hold voting shares representing at least 2% of the share capital with voting rights at the ordinary shareholders' meeting, subscribed to as of the date the list is submitted, or representing a smaller percentage established by inviolable provision of law or regulation.
The lists must contain the names of the candidates, numbered sequentially, who may not exceed the number of Statutory Auditors to be elected.
The lists must include candidates for Standing and Alternate Auditor of both genders in order to ensure the gender balance called for under the law in effect at the time. The Standing Auditors elected are the first and second candidates on the list obtaining the highest number of votes and the candidate obtaining the highest number of votes from among the minority lists. The alternate auditors elected are the first alternate candidate on the list obtaining the highest number of votes and the first alternate candidate on the minority list obtaining the highest number of votes. No shareholder, either individually or in conjunction with others, may submit more than one list and no shareholder, or any other party entitled to vote, may vote for more than one list either directly

Notice of the lists and of their accompanying information shall be given in the forms required by regulations in effect at the time.
Any lists that fail to observe the above conditions will be treated as never submitted.
Each candidate may appear on one list only or will be disqualified.
The lists with three or more candidates must include candidates of both genders and at least one third of the candidates (rounded up) for Standing and Alternate Auditor must be of the least represented gender.
The following persons may not be elected as Statutory Auditors and, if elected, lose office: a) persons who do not satisfy the requirements established by the applicable legislation and b) persons who are standing members of the Board of Statutory Auditors at more than five companies listed on organized markets in Italy.
The members of the Board of Statutory Auditors are elected as follows:
- from the list obtaining the highest number of votes, two regular auditors and one alternate auditor will be taken in the order in which they are presented on the list;
- the third standing member of the Board of Statutory Auditors, who serves as its Chairman, and the other alternate member are elected in order of appearance from the list with the second largest number of votes which is not associated, even indirectly, with the shareholders who submitted or voted for the winning list, or with shareholders who submitted or voted for the list per the preceding paragraph.
For purposes of electing the minority auditor in accordance with the above paragraph, in the event of a tie between lists, the prevailing list is that submitted by shareholders owning the greatest cumulative interest or, as a secondary measure, by the greatest number of shareholders, without prejudice to the law in effect at the time relating to gender balance.

In the event of a tie between two or more lists, provided none of the lists is associated, even indirectly, with the shareholders who submitted or voted for the other, a new ballot is held between these lists on which all shareholders present in shareholders' meeting shall vote. The candidates on the list winning a simple majority of votes shall be elected.
In the event of death, waiver or loss of office by a member of the Board of Statutory Auditors, the alternate member belonging to the same list as the outgoing auditor shall take up office, without prejudice to the law in effect at the time relating to gender balance.
In the event of replacing the Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors, the chair is taken by the other standing member on the same list as the outgoing Chairman; if, due to previous or concurrent departures from office, it is not possible to make the replacement in accordance with the above principles, a shareholders' meeting will be called to appoint the missing members.
If, in accordance with the preceding paragraph or with law, the shareholders' meeting is required to appoint missing standing and/or alternate members of the Board of Statutory Auditors, it shall act as follows: if it is a question of replacing standing members elected on the majority list, the appointment is made by majority vote, choosing where possible from the candidates appearing in the list to which the member being replaced belonged, without prejudice to the law in effect at the time relating to gender balance.
If just one list has been submitted, the shareholders' meeting casts its vote on that list; if the list gets the relative majority, the first three candidates appearing on it are elected as standing members of the Board of Statutory Auditors, without prejudice to the law in effect at the time relating to gender balance, while the fourth and fifth names are appointed as alternate members; the Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors is the first candidate appearing on the list presented; in the event of death, waiver or loss of office by a standing member of the Board of Statutory Auditors or replacement of its Chairman, their place is taken respectively by the alternate member and standing member next appearing on the list.

In the event that the above mentioned procedures do not guarantee that the number of standing auditors complies with the law in effect at the time relating to gender balance, the necessary substitutions will be made from the list that obtained the greatest number of votes based on the sequential order in which the candidates were listed.
If, by the deadline for submitting lists, the company has received a single list or only lists submitted by shareholders who are "associated" with one another as defined in regulations issued by the Commissione Nazionale per le Società e la Borsa (CONSOB), lists may be presented by the end of the extended period where provided for. In this case, the minimum share ownership required for the submission of lists for the election of statutory auditors is reduced by half.
These circumstances and this possibility will be announced in accordance with the law.
In the absence of lists, the Board of Statutory Auditors and its Chairman are elected by the shareholders' meeting with the majorities stated by law.

Outgoing statutory auditors may be re-elected.
Art. 25 = The company's financial year ends on the 31st (thirty-first) of December of every year.
Art. 26 = After allocating a portion of net profit to the legal reserve, until this reaches one-fifth of share capital, the rest of net profit shall be distributed to the shareholders, unless the shareholders' meeting decides otherwise.
The dividends shall be paid by authorized intermediaries in accordance with the terms established by the shareholders' meeting, pursuant to prevailing legal requirements. The Board of Directors may vote to distribute advances on the dividends in the circumstances and manner established by Article 2433-bis of the Italian Civil Code and by Article 158 of Legislative Decree 58/1998.
Dividends not collected within five years of the date they become payable shall revert to the company.
Art. 27 = In the event of winding up and liquidating the company and generally any other matter not explicitly covered by these Articles of Association, the related provisions of law shall apply.
